

Nadia Bourély
Senior Trade Commissioner Embassy of Canada

Nadia Bourély assumed the role of Senior Trade Commissioner and Commercial Counselor at the Embassy of Canada to Indonesia in January 2016. She was previously the Director of the Trade Policy and Negotiations Division (Asia) at Global Affairs Canada (GAC), serving as Deputy Chief Negotiator for the Canada-Korea FTA, Canada's first FTA in Asia, as well as for free trade negotiations with Japan.

Other prior assignments include senior analyst at the Foreign Affairs Secretariat of the Privy Council Office, senior legal counsel at GAC's Trade Law Bureau and First Secretary at Canada's Mission to the Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). She is a member of the Québec Bar and holds a LLB from the Université de Montréal and a LLM (Honours) from McGill University. Ms Bourély is married and has a son.