North Jakarta Intercultural School Announces New Head of School

Jakarta, Indonesia – 1 August, 2024

North Jakarta Intercultural School (NJIS) proudly announces the appointment of Mr. Ezra Alexander as the new Head of School. With an extensive background in education spanning over two decades, Mr. Ezra is poised to lead NJIS with a commitment to excellence and a focus on student-centered initiatives.

Mr. Ezra's dedication and pursuit of education have been an inspiration and encouragement for his students and peers to follow suit, demonstrating leadership qualities that have advanced NJIS to new heights of achievement.

Mr. Ezra expressed his enthusiasm for his new position within the NJIS community. "I am deeply honored to assume this responsibility," he remarked. "Together with the esteemed faculty and staff, I am committed to fostering an environment where every student can thrive."

Prior to becoming NJIS's new Head of School, Mr. Ezra served as the PYP Coordinator, leading initiatives that significantly enhanced student performance and community engagement. He holds a Master's degree in Education from Western Washington University.

This announcement marks a significant change and a new milestone for North Jakarta Intercultural School (NJIS). With his wealth of experience and commitment to education excellence, Mr. Ezra's leadership promises to usher NJIS into an era of unparalleled growth and achievement, focused on discovering excellence in every child.
